FAMILY RECORD

In compiling this family record I have endeavored to procure the facts and then to record them as clearly as possible. That there are errors I am certain. In collecting these items I have largely depended upon members of the various families to furnish me the data concerning that particular family. In many cases the information furnished me has been conflicting, and I have had to use my best judgment in selecting the matter used. Most of these persons used a pen and, in many cases, it was impossible to decipher the exact meaning of a word or date. To all who have furnished any information I am grateful, and hope that the record I have collected may be of some use in preserving our family history, and in furnishing some information for anyone who may undertake to revise and extend my collection.

On the Williams side I had statements from members of the family that my grandmother, Hester Pickering, was born in Fleming, Virginia, while others stated that she was born in Flushing, Ohio. Perhaps the fact that at the time of her birth Ohio still belonged to Virginia may account for the conflict. On the Root side statements were made concerning my grandmother, Lovice Foote, some saying that she was born in England, others giving different opinions. I leave the settling of some of these matters to others.

PENSION OFFICE MAY - 3 1887

State of Ohio } ss.

In the Matter of Increase Pension claim of Erwin Hewitt Certificate No 196.019, Personally appeared before Me a Notary Public, in and for the County & State aforesaid. George B. Spencer M D and James W Williams M D and William Hill, all of Weston, Wood Co Ohio and Who being duly Sworn deposes and say: That they have treated the said Erwin Hewitt for Gangrene of right foot, (Since resulted in a necessitated amputation of leg) and it is our positive opinion that the said Gangrene is the result of a diseased Condition of the Heart and arteries of the said Erwin Hewitt, basing our opinion on the following facts.

1st There is an ossified Condition of the Coats of the arteries, preventing an adequate dilitation under the impulsive action of the heart, necessary to convey to the Capillary system, a proper amount of arterial blood to sustain vitality in points remote from heart. Hence allowing a stasis or stagnation of blood in such remote points, a consequent lowering of vital powers and ultimate death of parts which is Gangrene.

2nd We believe the diseased Condition of Arterial Coats is frequently (and in our opinion it is so in this case) to be due to diseased Condition of liver and Spleen. Those Organs not fully performing their functions of blood repair and blood purifier.

3rd. The enlarged Condition of heart with Consequent Muscular debility of said organ, with deficient innervation, as is evidenced in the Case of the said Erwin Hewitt, would of necessity render the Circulation in extremities very poor and feeble, without the diseased Condition of the arterial coats, which would of necessity prevent proper circulation.

Hence: from forgoing reasons. We give it as our professional opinion, that Gangrene in Erwin Hewitts Case did result directly from disease of Spleen Liver and heart, and that the subsequent amputation was as much a Consequence of such diseases also:

We are not Concerned in nor do we have any interest in the prosecution of this Claim.

Note 1.

The company commander will here add a statement of all the facts known to him concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability of the soldier; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the injury occurred, or disease originated or appeared; the duty, or service, or situation of the soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted, stating particularly whether the injury was received or the disease contracted in the line of his duty; and whatever other facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.

When the facts are not known to the company commander, the certificate of any officer, or affidavit of other person having such knowledge, will be appended—as the surgeon in charge of a hospital, the officer commanding a detachment of recruits, &c., &c.

Note 2.

When a probable case for pension, special care must be taken to state the degree of disability—as ½, ⅓, &c., &c.; to describe particularly the disability, wound, or disease; the extent to which it deprives him of the use of any limb or faculty, or affects his health, strength, activity, constitution, or capacity to labor or earn his subsistence. The surgeon will add, from his knowledge of the facts and circumstances, and from the evidence in the case, his professional opinion of the cause or origin of the disability. In the case of discharges by Medical Inspectors, the last paragraph will state that the "discharge was given by consent of the soldier, after a personal examination, and for disability, the nature, degree, and origin of which are correctly described in the within certificate."

Par. 1260 Regulations, Edit. 1861.

Medical officers, in giving certificates of disability, are to take particular care in all cases that have not been under their charge; and especially in epilepsy, convulsions, chronic rheumatism, derangement of the urinary organs, ophthalmia, ulcers, or any obscure disease liable to be feined or purposely produced; and in no case shall such certificate be given until after sufficient time and examination to detect any attempt at deception.

DIRECTIONS.

This certificate will be made out in duplicate by the soldier's company commander, or other officer commanding the separate detachment to which he belongs and sent by him to the surgeon who has charge of the hospital where the soldier is sick. The surgeon will then fill out and sign the surgeon's certificate, and forward these papers to the regimental, detachment, or post commander, who will forward them, with his action endorsed thereon, through the proper channel, to his division commander; or, if the troops are not attached to a division, to his corps, department, or other commander or officer to whom the authority to discharge enlisted men may be specially delegated.

These certificates, after having received the action of the highest authority to which they are required to be sent, will be returned through the same channel to the regimental, post, or detachment, commander, who will, if the discharge is authorized by the endorsement of the proper authority, sign the soldier's discharge, and the last certificate on this paper; see that the soldier is furnished with the proper final statements in duplicate, and forward BOTH of these certificates direct to the Adjutant General United States Army, at Washington, D. C.; they will not under any circumstances be given into the hands of the soldier.

Erwin Hewit, being duly sworn says, that in addition to the testimony heretofore given in support of my application for Pension, that Capt H. Terry, was Relief in his offi-cial as to Scorbutic Disease, is owing to the fact that on or about 24th of Dec 1862 was ordered to the front for the battle of Stone River & the Surgeons went also, & it was while I was behind sick, that Scorbutic disease set in & Capt Terry never saw me from the time he went to the front to this time, hence he could not say anything about Scorbutic Disease. This first attack of Scorbutic disease was near Nashville Tennessee, the particulars are set forth in my papers now on file. I have called upon Doctor Bainbridge for the dates of his visits to me & he informs affiant, that he regarded me as too poor to pay him anything hence never made any charges & cant give the dates of such visits.

He claims pension on the Grounds of 1st Heart disease, & 2, chronic Diarrhoea" as set forth in his declaration filed "July 21. 1879". He abandons all other Cause. Affiant further says that he intended & supposed that his Original application contained as one of the Grounds for his pension, that of heart disease, & if it is not therein, it was omitted by mistake, and he cannot assign any reason for the omission, for affiant certainly intended to include it & supposed it was, until notified to the Contrary.

That Erwin Hewit is now suffering from Senile Gangrene of the right foot. The great toe and half of the toe next to the great toe have already been destroyed and removed and there yet remains such a degree of inflammation and suppuration in the foot that at present no definite opinion can be given as to the point at which this gangrene will be arrested. We attribute the cause of the Gangrene 1st To a depraved condition of the cell life the result of poor digestion and defective assimilation resulting from Chronic Diarrhoea from which he claims to have suffered for the last twenty years. 2d To a defective and weakened action of the heart and arteries on account of which the foot is poorly supplied with good and healthy blood. This condition of the heart exists to such such a degree that on the 30th day of July in attempting to administer Aether and Chloroform as anaesthetic for the purpose of removing some dead tissue, we were compelled to desist and withdraw the anaesthetic on account of the weak and rapid action of the heart the pulsations reaching one hundred and fifty per minute. At the present time Erwin Hewett is confined to his room on account of the disease above named, and is at this time totally disabled from the performance of any manual labor whatever

Mrs. Doet Lundrum, Mrs. Nellie Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Benson McMecnen, of Toledo, were called here last week by the sickness and death of their mother, Mrs. John N. Farrar. Mrs. Farrar had been a resident of Hudson for 45 years. She had lived a kind and noble life, always thoughtful of the suffering and needy. Four daughters and her husband mourn her death, and the whole community deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

ASSIGNMENT OF C. W. FARRAR, OF HUDSON.

Cleveland Herald Special.

HUDSON, O., Aug. 21.—Another old merchant succumbed to the hard times this morning. The difficulty in making collections and the long-continued depression in business have compelled Mr. Charles W. Farrar, one of our oldest merchants here, to make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. W. C. Reed, to whom Mr. Farrar has entrusted the management of affairs, says that from the examination he has made he believes the assets will be more than sufficient to pay all debts in full. As soon as an inventory and appraisement can be made by the assignees, a more definite statement will be given. Liabilities not known yet. Mr. Farrar has been engaged in business here since the town was in its infancy. He carried on quite an extensive business as general merchant, and was considered by many to be in good circumstances financially. He will not resume business here.

A COLD-BLOODED MURDER.

A FORMER SUMMIT COUNTY MAN KILLED IN KANSAS.

A Hoisington, Barton County, Kan., paper of April 14, a clipping from which is sent to THE BEACON gives the following account of the murder of a former resident of Northfield township, this county:

"The citizens of our town were called upon Thursday to witness a deed, which for cold-blooded fiendishness, is without a parallel. Geo. W. Brower and Burr Cofer both farmers living some six or seven miles from town, had for some time been at enmity, and Brower had often been threatened with violence, but no notice had been taken of it. Brower had taken up some of Cofer's stock which was running at large and had sued Cofer for the damage done to his crops. The case was heard on Thursday before Justice Cummins' in Dennis Hall, each agreeing to pay his own costs. After trial Burr Cofer went down stairs and out into the street, and the old man, Burr's father, took his position in the door. As Mr. Brower passed, the old man cursed him and said: "There goes the d——d old thief." Mr. Brower turned and asked what he said, and Cofer repeated his remark. A good deal of loud talking was done and Cofer appeared anxious to draw Brower into a quarrel, When Burr dashed up the steps with a knife in his hand and began stabbing Brower. Three bad cuts were made in his breast, and two in his back. Brower staggered a few feet and fell and died in a few minutes. The affair took place before some 25 witnesses. The city marshal and the constable assisted by one deputy, took charge of both the Cofers and took them to Great Bend and turned them over to the sheriff. Great excitement prevailed and it was thought that they would be mobbed and lynched before they could be got out of town, but the forethought and cool heads of our citizens prevented any such rash act. Coroner Shaw was notified and arrived at about three o'clock P. M. a jury was secured and an inquest held. The jury rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. The coroner returned on Friday morning and dissected the body. He discovered that one of the blows, struck in the breast, had severed an important artery near the heart. The Cofers have been looked upon as bad characters for a long time, but were not thought capable of such a cool, premeditated crime. Mr. Brower was an honest, industrious farmer, who had been a resident of Barton county for some time. He leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held in the hall on Friday at 2:30 P. M."

Geo. W. Brower was born in Northfield this county in 1814 and on July 16th, 1862, at the age of 18 enlisted in Co. G, 115th Regt., Infantry, Ohio V. I., D. N. Lowrey Captain, A. L. Conger 1st Lieut., Sumner Nash 2nd Lieut. He was taken prisoner and sent to Libby prison where he remained until the close of the war. After returning home he went West where he married Lucinda Clark. He returned to Ohio, and in 1877 went again to Kansas and finally settled down in Hoisington, Barton Co., where the terrible crime related above was committed on the 12th day of April. The murdered man lacked four days of being 44 years old.

RICH'S PREMIUM

WASHING MACHINE

Warranted to be the BEST in the United States, and to give satisfaction in every instance or NO SALE

SOME of the advantages to be derived from the use of this Machine are the unparalleled saving of time and labor. The beater, being propelled by the force of a fly wheel attached to the crank shaft, operates with such ease that a child twelve years old will turn it to do an ordinary washing. The force of it is such, that table linen, sheets, &c., may be washed clean without rubbing them, within from three to four minutes. It does not wear the clothes. The operation of the Machine is to press the water through them as they roll over in it, washing every part alike, giving them a degree of whiteness rarely attained by the tedious method of pounding and rubbing. It is also well adapted and will be found exceedingly useful for washing wool. It is simple in its construction, and not liable to get out of repair.

The Machine usually creates a favorable impression at first sight, and improves upon acquaintance, as all will testify who have tested them, and which is proven by the following references:

We, the undersigned, residents of Summit county, Ohio, having purchased, used and fairly tested the above Machine, most cheerfully unite in saying we believe the above is a fair representation of its merits, and we take pleasure in recommending them to the public.

DESCENDANTS OF ROGER PRESTON OF IPSWICH AND SALEM VILLAGE.

By Charles Henry Preston.

I. 1. Roger Preston was one of the many who came to America from England in the year 1635. The only record found of him in England is the following:

"Port of London, 8 April 1635. Theis parties hereunder mentioned are to be transported to New England imbarqued in the Elizabeth of London, Wm. Stagg master bound thither; they have taken oath of allegiance and supremacy, per certificate from St. Alphage, Cripplegate the minister thereof.

Tanners	Wm Holdred	25
	Roger Preston	21
	Daniel Bradley	29
	Isaac Stedman	30

That theis 3 ptes are no subsedie men we whose names hereunto written belonging to Blackwell Hall do averr they are none. Robert Farrands
Thomas Smith."

Nothing has been found on the records to show where Roger Preston lived for the four years following his coming to New England, but he probably went directly to Ipswich, Mass., as we find he owned a house and lot and a "planting lott" there in 1639, as shown by this record from the Ipswich town records:

"Granted to William Holdred an house lott an half an acre of ground lying on the south side of the towne River having an house lott of Daniel Hovey's on the Northeast and a house lott of Roger Preston's on the southwest; also six acres of planting ground lying on Sagamore Hill having six acres of the lyke ground of Daniel Hovey's on the West and a planting lott of Roger Preston's on the East to enjoy the said Landes to him his heirs and assigns forever. Entered this 9th day of Aprill 1639."

The William Holdred mentioned in this record is undoubtedly the same William Holdred who came to New laying any just claim thereto in by from or under us or any or either of us our heirs executors or assigns in witness whereof I the said Roger and Martha my wife have hereunto set our hand and seal dated the 11 day of March A. D. 1657/8.

Subscribed sealed etc.

in presence of James Chute — Roger Preston Robert Roberson — Martha × Preston mark

About a year after the sale of his property in Ipswich, Roger bought the lease of a farm in Salem. On the 14 March 1658/9 an agreement was made between George Norton and Roger Preston, "For the lease of the farm the said Norton now dwelleth in. The saide Roger Preston is to enter the fiftene day March 1659 otherwise date 1660 & to pay all dewes the said Norton is to pay & to have all rights that doth belong to the saide Norton & to pay to the saide Norton what those three men that have formerly viewed it shall finde it better than it was when the saide Norton came to it, in witness hereof we have enterchangeably set our hands this 14 day of March 1658/9." (Vol. XI, page 39, Quarterly Court Records.)

This farm was a part of the Emanuel Downing farm, which extended from the slope of Felton's Hill, or Mount Pleasant as it is now called, to and beyond Proctor's Corner in the town of Peabody, formerly a part of Danvers, and previous to that of Salem. It was granted in 1635 to Robert Cole and by him sold in 1638 to Emanuel Downing. This farm was called Groton, in remembrance of his wife's ancestral home in England. There were at least four dwellings on the farm prior to 1661, and one of his tenants in 1648 was allowed to keep an "ordinary," "as Mr. Downings farm on the road between Lynn and Ipswich was a convenient place." This farm was leased to George Norton of Salem, carpenter, for a term of ten years from the first of March 1656, and here Roger Preston made his abode in 1660.

Lease to George Norton from Lucie Downing:

This indenture witnesseth that Lucie Downing of Salem in New England with ye consent of Emanuel Downing her husband hath let and farmed unto George Norton sometime of Salem aforesaid Carpenter her farme caled Groton neere unto ye farme of ye worshipfull John Endecot Esq. in Salem aforesd for & during the term of tenn yeares from ye first of March 1655/6.

Roger Preston seems to have followed the example of those who had previously occupied the Downing farm, for the Court at Salem on the 27—9mo—1660, granted the following license:

"Roger Preston is allowed of by this court to keep an ordinary and to sell strong liquors for ye entertainment of strangers for ye year ensuing," and the following year the license was renewed.

This farm was favorably located for an inn, as in those days all the travel from Boston to Ipswich and other towns in that vicinity went over this road, and Roger Preston probably entertained many of his old Ipswich neighbors at his new home. Roger died shortly before his lease expired in 1666, after having occupied the farm only six years.

The following from the "Quarterly Court Records" at Salem, Vol. V, page 52, indicates where Roger was between the sale of his Ipswich property and his taking possession of the Downing property:

"Salem 9mo 1659. Roger Preston pltf. agst. Wm. Cogswell deft. in an action of the case for not performing of agreement in paying for fence which plt. set upon his ground which he took to halves according to sumons.

"The jury find for plt. £7—2^{s} damage.

"Costs of Court £1—15—4."

Wm. Cogswell was an early resident of Ipswich, appearing on the records there as early as 1648.

John Proctter, sr. and John Choot, chosen by Rodger Presson to appraise a parcel of four-rail fencing, Nov. 22, 1659, adjudged its value to be 14d. per rod.

John Knoulton and Thomas Varney chosen to measure a parcel of fence which Rogger Presson set up for Will. Cogswell, it being four score and sixteen rods; there were also sixteen four-hole posts. Dated Nov. 25, 1659.

John Andrews, aged about forty years, deposed that he went with Presson, when the latter asked Willm. Cogswell to release him of his bargain to hire Cogswell's farm. The latter refused to allow Presson anything for repair of the housing but agreed to pay him for the fence he had set up, etc. and to release him at Michaelmas. Sworn 27:9:1659 before D. Denison.

John Chote deposed that when he heard that Roger Preston had given up the farm, he asked William Coggswell if the latter would let it to him, and Coggswell replied that Preston was to stay in the house to feed out his fodder, but he would let it to deponent as soon as any other man, etc. Sworn in Court, before Hillyard Veren, cleric.

Roger Preston was born in 1614, as shown by his age when he took the oath of allegiance in London. He died, perhaps in Lynn, 20 Jan. 1666 (Quarterly Court Records), though probably not residing there at the time, as his lease of the Downing farm in Salem had not expired. He married, previous to 1643, Martha ———, who was born about 1622. "Widow Preston married Nicholas Holt,* 21 May 1666" (Andover Records). "Widow

*Nicholas Holt came from Romsey in Hants, England, in 1635, by way of Southampton. He settled in Newbury and was a tanner. He removed to Andover, where he was one of the founders of the Church in 1645. His first wife, Elizabeth, died 7 Nov. 1656, and he married, second, at Ipswich, 20 June 1658, Hannah, widow of Daniel Rolfe; she died 20 June 1665, and he married 21 May 1666, widow Martha Preston.

Martha Holt died 21 Mar. 1702/3, aged upwards of 80 years" (Andover Records); Nicholas Holt died 30 Jan. 1685. Martha Preston undoubtedly took all the children, with the possible exception of Thomas, with her to Andover, at the time of her marriage to Nicholas Holt.

Feb. 9, 1664/5. For valuable consideration or sum of money Roger Preston, husbandman, sold Capt. George Corwin, merchant, "all his visible estate in Salem, corn, cattle, hay and household stuffs, four oxen, four yearling steers and fifteen swine. Also all corn I sd. Roger shall plant or sow the year ensuing."

Children:

2. Thomas, born 1643, in Ipswich, Mass.
3. Mary; a Mary Preston, m. 8 Nov. 1670 Nathaniel Ingersoll, son of John and Judith (Felton) Ingersoll of Salem; born 2 Jan. 1647/8; Nathaniel Felton lived not far from the Prestons, when they were occupying the Downing farm, and Thomas Preston had married in 1669 and was living nearby. Ch.: 1. Elizabeth, b. 11 Mar. 1672/3; 2. John, b. 7 Nov. 1674; 3. Nathaniel, d. 1704.
4. Elizabeth; an Elizabeth Preston m. in Salem, 12 July 1671, William Henfield. Ch. born in Salem: 1. Elizabeth, b. 4 Apr. 1672; 2. Hannah, b. 1674; d. in 6 weeks; 3. Hannah, b. 4 Apr. 1676/7. The following from Essex Court Records, indicates a relationship: Petition for administration on estate of Wm. Henfield of Salem by Roger Derby. "Wm. Henfield being decd. in West Indies this seven years, and no one appearing to take adms." His wife and family still living on the property 16 Dec. 1694. Adms. granted 24 Dec. 1694 to Samuel Gardner and Roger Derby as principals, and Francis Nurse and Thomas Preston, yeomen, sureties on bond of first two. Inventory 26 Dec. 1694, by Christopher Babbidge and Wm. Murray. Among the claims against the estate was that of Thomas Preston £8..0..0.
5. Samuel, b. 1651, in Ipswich, Mass.
6. John, b. ——, in Ipswich, Mass.
7. Jacob, b. 1658, in Ipswich, Mass.
8. Levi, b. 16 July 1662, in Salem, Mass.

The ages of Martha (Preston) and Samuel are established by two depositions in the case of "Thomas Preston plt. agst. John Newman deft. in the action of the case for illegal taking away of a heifer of the plt." 26-4-1666. (Quarterly Court Rec., Salem.)

"Deposition of Samuel Preston aged about 15 years. I Samuell Preston do heare testifie that about a year and a half since my brother Thomas Preston bought of my father Roger Preston one red heifer . . . (taken upon oath 19th 4th 66 before Simon Bradstreet)." (Vol. XI, page 106, Quarterly Court Records.)

"Deposition of Martha Holt aged about 44 years. I Martha Holt doe heare testifie that about a yeare and a half since my sonn Thomas Preston bought of my husband Roger Preston one red hayfer. . . . (19th 4th 66 before me Simon Bradstreet)." (Vol. XI, page 106, Quarterly Court Rec.)

Roger Preston died without making a will and the following is from the Quarterly Court Records of Salem:

"Ipswich, March 27, 1666. Whereas Roger Preston dyed intestate, none appearing to take administration of the estate, this court orders that the estate of said Roger Preston be deposited and preserved in the hands of Thomas Preston until the next court held at Salem, there to bring in a true inventory and then the court will take order about the estate and disposing of it."

"Ipswich, March 27, 1666. This Court being informed that Widow Preston hath put out two of her sons one to Thomas Johnson and one to Stephen Johnson until they be 21 years of age, this Court allows it and Mr. Bradstreet desired to see it done."

The above could only refer to Samuel and John, as Thomas was twenty-three years old at this time, Jacob eight, and Levi only four.

May 20, 1671, Jacob Preston was apprenticed to Thomas Chandler of Merrimack:

This indenture made and concluded this 20th day of May in the year of ye Lord God one thousand six hundred & seventy one and in the three and twenty year of the reign of ye Soveraigne Lord Charles the 2d. by the Grace of God of England France and Ireland & Scotland, King defender of the faith, etc.

Between ensign Thomas Chandler of Merrimack in the county of Essex in New England, Blacksmith on ye one part and Jacob Preston of Andover with the full consent of Nicholas Holt of Andover aforsd his father in law by the marriage of his mother, and also with the full consent of his natural mother hath and doth by these presents bind himself an apprentice to ye said Thomas seven years to be completed and ended accounting from the 26th day of March last past until the said seven years next and immediately ensuing the said 26th of March 1671 shall be fully expired. During which time of seven years the said Jacob shall behave and demean himself during his said apprenticeship as an apprentice or servant ought for to do according to the usual custom of England in the like case. During which time also of seven years, the above named Thomas, master unto ye said Jacob is hereby obliged and stands bound at his own costs and charges to provide and procure for his said servant meat drink and clothing washing and lodging with all other things convenient necessary and sufficient for an apprentice as is usual in England. And the said Chandler is to learn or cause his said apprentice to be learnt to read ye English tongue perfectly, to write and cypher or cast and keep accounts sufficiently for his own employment of a blacksmith if his capacity will attain thereunto. And the said Thomas is hereby obliged according to his own best skill & ability to learn and instruct the said Jacob in the trade and art of a blacksmith if the said Jacob be capable of learning the same, and he shall keep his said servant Jacob at work upon the said trade as much as may be without damage to other necessary occasions that may fall out unavoidably to be done in a family that so far for want of time & use and instruction ye said Jacob may have no just grounds to complain of his own want of experience or profiting under his said master in ye said trade of a blacksmith. Also ye said Thomas when ye said seven years are expired shall give the said Jacob two suits of apparel from head to foot suitable for a person of his degree one good and handsome and suitable to wear on ye Sabbath day, and the other convenient for the week days. (Quarterly Court Records, Vol. XXX, page 43.)

There was a case of sale of the above indentured apprentice to William Curtis of Salem. The apprentice refused to stay with the new master:

"The complaint of William Curtis to the honered Court now sitting in Salem humbly sheweth, May it please your honers to take notice that about 22 months since I bought a sarvant of Thomas Chandler of Andover, Jacob Presson by name. My sarvent continued with me about eleven months my family being at that time very sick and Jacob not being very well, I gave him leave and lent him my horse to go to Andover to be a while amongst his friends, but being taken sick by the way at his brothers, there he lay for sometime. After he recovered he went to Andover to his father Holts where I was willing he should be a while but in the beginning of the last winter I sent for my man to come home."

He made an excuse to go for some corn again and instead of returning, he sent back the horse and stayed away himself. Quoting from the "History of Andover": "He seems to have had a rather unhappy apprenticeship, for after his transfer of masters and his being compelled as he was by orders of the Court to serve out his time with William Curtis, he presents a petition to the Court for the clothes promised him, saying that the said Curtis of Salem whom he was appointed by the Court in 1670 to serve, refused at the end of that time to fulfil the terms of the indenture in the matter of double apparrel and that the poor petitioner prays for redress, for he is indeed come out of his time very poor and hath not where withall to go to law to recover his right."

The following is from Quarterly Court Records at Salem:

Salem 27—4mo 1676.

"Upon a complaint made by William Curtice agst. Tho. Preston it is ordered that it be referred to the adjournment of this court & accordingly summons be issued for the ptes concerned there to appear viz: Good. Holt, Thos. Preston, & his brother."

Salem, 18 July, 1676:

"Whereas there was a complaint made by William Curtis against his servant Jacob Preston for leaving of his service and the sd. Jacob appearing to answer, this Court do order the sd Jacob to serve out his time according to Indenture with the said Wm. Curtice who is also to fulfil the indenture to his said servant likewise on his pt. and after that time is expired to serve three months more next following in consideration of time lost or neglected.

"This sd. Jacob promises and it is to be understood that sd. Curtice is to keep him to work at the trade of a blacksmith which he now useth & each to bear charges & also Thomas Preston to bear his pt. . . ."

Salem 24—5mo 1678.

"Whereas there was a difference between William Curtice and his servant Jacob Preston about the fulfilling of his indenture of apprenticeship on either part and they moving of it to the court who do advise & they accordingly agreed to refer the sd difference to the Worshipful Maj. Wm. Hathorne to fully end and determine and make a final end of said difference or demands in what way be thought right & just in order to either party fulfilling the said indenture."

Salem 25—9mo 1679.

"Jacob Preston being lost away at sea this court grants power of administration of his estate to John Preston who is to bring in an inventory of the estate to the next court held at Salem and acknowledged himself to stand bound in £20 bond and to administer according to law."

Salem 29—4mo 1680.

"John Prêston, administrator to the estate of Jacob Preston, presented an inventory of the said estate and made oath to the truth to the best of his knowledge."

Inventory of Jacob Preston:

"A true inventory of the estate of Jacob Preston whoe in all probabilitie hath bin departed this life for these several months having bin wanting about nine or ten months gon forth in a small ketch upon a fishing design to the eastward & never yet returned nor certainly heard of. He was a witness, 24:2:1646 on will of Joseph Morse of Newbury. 1:18 Ipswich Court. He only marks. When a petition was made by Major Dennison, 1648, he signed. He was perhaps from Island of Jersey. Samuel Preston, Sen. was admitted to the church in Andover in 1711; he was a carpenter, though owning considerable land there, and sometimes called yeoman. It is thought he lived near what is now known as "Preston's Plain" near Ballardvale in Andover. He received several grants of land from the town, the first being 1 Jan. 1677, "on ye west side of his lott" and another 1 Mar. 1680, "Granted liberty to Samuel Preston to change two acres he bought of Andrew Foster which was upon the plain by ye pine tree going to good: Ballards, and lay it out adjoining to his new farme."

Thomas Preston died about 1742, and his estate was settled by a division recorded in the Essex Deeds, Vol. 84, p. 29:—. Indenture between Thomas Preston of Salem, weaver, William Trefry of Marblehead, mariner, & Rebecca his wife, Anna Preston & Mary Preston of Salem sisters of sd. Thomas, whereas Thomas Preston late of Salem, yeoman, died seized of certain land and tenements lying in Salem the property & possession of which (saving widow's right of dower) belongs to Thomas William and Rebecca, Anna & Mary, therefore for settlement they covenant and agree: (then follows a division of the property among widow Anna Preston and the others before mentioned); dated 4 June 1742.

The widow Rebecca died about 1753, and her will dated 14 Sept. 1747, proved 14 May 1753, mentions daughters Anna, Mary, Rebecca and son Thomas.

The will of Mary Preston, daughter of Thomas, dated 11 Oct. 1774, and proved 1 Apr. 1776, gives property to sister Anna, single woman.

WILLIAM BLUNT was progenitor of a line of descendants who have owned considerable estates especially on the Hill at Andover. Some of these estates form a part of the grounds of the Theological Seminary. Mr. Isaac Blunt made a donation of land to the Institutions of learning. He was an innkeeper during and after the Revolutionary War, and was also a hat or " felt "-maker. He lived on the present Salem Street, east of the Seminary buildings. His descendants, Mr. Charles K. Blunt and Mr. Samuel Blunt, live not far from the ancestral estates. One branch of the family lives at North Andover. In the colonial times the Rev. John Blunt, son of William Blunt, graduated at Harvard College, 1727, and was ordained minister of Newcastle, where he preached till his death, 1746, at the age of forty-two years. He was much esteemed, and a man of ability.

JOHN BRIDGES was constable in 1678. In 1723, Mr. James Bridges was representative to the General Court, and was a man of great influence and considerable wealth, the owner of several slaves. His " mault-house " is referred to in some of the records. His death is curiously described in the epitaph on his grave-stone : —

Erected in Memory of Mr. JAMES BRIDGES who departed this life
July 17th 1747 in y^e^
51^st^ year of his age
Being melted to death by extreme heat.

James Bridges, 2d, in 1750, seems to have had much difficulty and controversy with Moody Bridges. From the Proprietors' Books it appears that in 1750 they laid out a grant of land to Moody Bridges in " y^e^ new field." This was in possession of and claimed by James Bridges, who refused to give it up : —

" He with Holds y^e^ same from me y^e^ s^d^ Moody Bridges. Put to vote to see if y^e^ proprietors would put Moody Bridges in possession. Negative.

" To see if they w^d^ warrant the premises to Moody Bridges, by a lawful deed of sale. Neg.

" To see if they would enable him to draw money from y^e^ proprietors' treasury to carry on a Law suite against y^e^ said James Bridges to recover y^e^ privileges out of His hands by a writ of eject ment. Neg.

" To see if the proprietors would take it into their own hands & ejecte y^e^ s^d^ James Bridges outt of said premises. Neg.

" To see if ye Proprietors will give up to Moody Bridges the note of sixteen pounds he gave for the grant. Affirm."

Col. Moody Bridges was Adjutant to Colonel Fry in the French and Indian War, and performed arduous service (elsewhere referred to). He was an ardent patriot and made stirring Revolutionary speeches. He was delegate to the Provincial Congress, 1774–75. He died 1801, aged seventy-eight.

The epitaph on his grave-stone says : —

" He was a man eminently useful in his day
He lived, beloved, revered, and died greatly lamented by all his family & acquaintances."

Col. Moody Bridges, who died at North Andover, 1865, was for nearly fifty years deputy sheriff of the county. He was a man of genial hospitality and hearty good fellowship, and conspicuous in all the trainings and musters and county cattle shows, where his portly figure and ruddy face, beaming with good nature, his flowing gray locks under his cocked hat, and his stentorian voice, made him a prince of marshals, — the observed of all observers.

Of Colonel Bridges's large family, all have either died or removed from their former residence at North Andover.
